SUBJECT: Laws Regulating the Sale and Consumption Of Alcohol

Members of the University community are subject to all state, county and municipal laws, statutes or ordinances regulating the sale and use of beer and liquor, as well as University Regulations thereto.

Pursuant thereto, in accordance with applicable state law, the University will not permit or allow the consumption of beer or liquor on the campus and premises of Central State University by students or individuals under the lawful drinking age, which is Twenty-One (21) years of age in the State of Ohio.

Violation of this policy is an infraction of University Rules as well as a violation of the laws of the State of Ohio.

If a law enforcement authority or tribunal finds a member of the University community in violation of state, county or municipal laws, statutes or ordinances regulating the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages, the party found in violation will face university disciplinary procedures, regardless of the action taken by civil or criminal authorities.
