

COM 2214. Public Speaking (I, II; 3)

Students learn message preparation and presentation, with emphasis on formal speeches, including informational, demonstrative, and persuasive speeches. Primary theories of communication are introduced, and methods used by professional speakers are analysed. Required of all communication majors.