

Office of Student Life and Development Individual Member Anti-Hazing Form

Organization Name _____

ANTI-HAZING POLICY AND PRE-INITIATION ACTIVITIES

Members of student organizations or other persons associated with activities of student organizations may not engage in any hazing activities that pose any risk of physical or psychological injury to any person. Hazing in any form is an inappropriate activity. By definition, an act of hazing includes all conditions described by Section 2903.31 of the Ohio Revised Code and/or any activity or attitude, mental, emotional or physical which ridicules, degrades, embarrasses, leads to confusion or frustration, causes discomfort, or jeopardizes the health, welfare, and safety of an individual or group. Specifically, hazing includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Any activity that might reasonably bring embarrassment or emotional harm to the individual;
- Any activity that might reasonably bring physical harm to the individual;
- Any activity that requires an unreasonable or inordinate amount of the individual's time or in any manner that impairs the individual's academic efforts;
- Any activity that requires consumption of any liquid or solid matter;
- Any activity that would degrade or otherwise compromise the dignity of the individual, or any requirement which compels an individual to participate in any activity which is illegal or contrary to an individual's genuine, moral, and/or religious beliefs or contrary to the rules and regulations of the University.

Any acts of hazing by an organization and its members, either on or off campus are strictly forbidden. Hazing is a misdemeanor of the fourth degree under Ohio Law. Any organization that engages through any or all of its members, in any act of hazing is subject to severe disciplinary action, including revocation of recognition as an organization at Central State University.

I have read and understand Central State University's Anti-Hazing Policy. All activities sponsored or required by my organization will not violate the guidelines of the above policy. I take full responsibility for informing all members and prospective members of the Central State University Anti-Hazing Policy. I agree to hold blameless, Central State University from all liability arising out of any violation of the Anti-Hazing Policy by my organization or any of my members, past, present, or prospective. I further understand and agree that all membership drives or intake activities must be conducted strictly in accordance with the rules, regulations and policies of Central State University as well as local, state and federal laws.
