GENERAL ARTICULATION AGREEMENT
CENTRAL STATE UNIVERSITY AND
CINCINNATI STATE TECHNICAL & COMMUNITY COLLEGE

In principle, credit earned at Cincinnati State Technical and Community College should be transferable to any other accredited institution of higher education. In accordance with this principle, Cincinnati State Technical & Community College and Central State University agree to mutual cooperation in correlating their respective programs for the Associate and the Baccalaureate degrees. The principle beneficiaries are protected by firm arrangements among institutions of higher education and are thereby provided the opportunity of planning a total baccalaureate degree program at the outset of their college education.

Subject to the terms of this agreement, the students who have earned an Associate's degree at Cincinnati State or completed the Transfer Module are assured admission to Central State University with junior-level standing for courses of study completed at Cincinnati State Technical and Community College. To facilitate transfer of students and to provide them with accurate transfer information at the earliest possible time, articulated programs between Central State University departments and Cincinnati State Technical and Community College academic units will be developed after this agreement is approved by the cooperating institutions.

PRINCIPLES OF AGREEMENT

Cincinnati State and Central State University confirm the following points of agreement, to assure equal treatment of all transfer and regularly enrolled students:

1. The determination of major program requirements for a Baccalaureate degree shall be the responsibility of authorized representatives of Central State University.

2. For admission to Central State University, the student will be required to earn at least a 2.0 overall average on a four point scale. The same criteria required of students for admission to programs having prerequisites other than a 2.0 grade average, will be applicable to Cincinnati State Technical and Community College students. All Cincinnati State coursework intended for transfer must have earned grades of “D” or better.

3. Credits earned at or transferred from Cincinnati State Technical and Community College will be limited to half of the Baccalaureate degree. If the student switches his/her major to an area of concentration not covered by this agreement, transfer credit will be determined on a course-by-course evaluation.

4. No time limit (years) shall be placed on the acceptance of credit transferable from Cincinnati State Technical & Community College to Central State University unless there is a specific policy of limitations for matriculated students at Central State University.

General Articulation Agreement
5. Though remedial and orientation courses do not normally fulfill graduation requirements, Central State University will, on a course-by-course basis, treat transfer credit from Cincinnati State Technical and Community College for courses in remediation and orientation in the same manner as comparable courses at Central State University.

6. If limitations on enrollment become necessary in an upper level division Central State University program, the University will provide Cincinnati State Technical & Community College with admission criteria and quotas. Further, Central State University agrees to allocate a specified number of spaces based upon prior information as to the number of qualified transfer students who will be transferring from Cincinnati State.

7. If requested by either Cincinnati State Technical and Community College or Central State University and approved by the students involved, transcripts of the transfer students from Cincinnati State Technical and Community College will be transmitted and shared between both institutions for the purpose of providing counseling of prospective transfer students and providing follow-up information for Cincinnati State Technical regarding success of students transferring to Central State University.

8. Cincinnati State Technical and Community College students transferring to Central State University will be treated the same as matriculated Central State University students of equal class standing when applying for financial aid and in the award and distribution of these funds.

9. Cincinnati State Technical and Community College students transferring to Central State University will receive consideration for campus housing on the same basis as Central State University students of equal class standing.

10. Cincinnati State Technical and Community College students transferring to Central State University will receive equal opportunity to pre-register for junior level classes and have access to other student services on the same basis as matriculated Central State University students of equal class standing.

11. Cincinnati State Technical & Community College and Central State University will assign a staff member to serve as a liaison to assure maintenance of communication between the institutions.

12. Either party may initiate the termination of this Agreement upon six months written notification to the other party. Students in progress will be permitted to complete the program. Review of this agreement should be initiated every four academic years.
