

Graduating Senior Survey Question related to Communication Skills

The following question is part of the Graduating Senior Survey, which is administered annually to graduating seniors in Spring. Please see below the responses to this question for Spring 2007.

“Did your experience at CSU help you improve your communication skills?”

53% of the respondents in the 2007 survey reported that their experience at CSU had strong positive impact in improving their communication skills.

33% of the respondents in the 2007 survey reported that their experience at CSU had mild positive impact in improving their communication skills.

11% of the respondents in the 2007 survey reported that their experience at CSU had no impact in improving their communication skills.

2% of the respondents in the 2007 survey reported that their experience at CSU had mild negative impact in improving their communication skills.

1% of the respondents in the 2007 survey reported that their experience at CSU had strong negative impact in improving their communication skills.

