

Graduating Senior Survey Question related to Chosen Field of Study

The following question is part of the Graduating Senior Survey, which is administered annually to graduating seniors in Spring. Please see below the responses to this question for Spring 2007.

“Did your experience at CSU give you a firm grounding in your chosen field of study?”

63% of the respondents in the 2007 survey reported that their experience at CSU had strong positive impact in giving them a firm grounding in their chosen field of study.

25% of the respondents in the 2007 survey reported that their experience at CSU had mild positive impact in giving them a firm grounding in their chosen field of study.

7% of the respondents in the 2007 survey reported that their experience at CSU had no impact in giving them a firm grounding in their chosen field of study.

4% of the respondents in the 2007 survey reported that their experience at CSU had mild negative impact in giving them a firm grounding in their chosen field of study.

1% of the respondents in the 2007 survey reported that their experience at CSU had strong negative impact in giving them a firm grounding in their chosen field of study.

