

Roslayn L. Cooper a Central State University Junior from Toledo, OH represented the State of Ohio in the National American Miss Pageant in the Teen Division in Anaheim California over Thanksgiving Weekend 2005. Ms. Cooper, was crowned Miss Ohio in July in the state pageant that was held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Columbus, OH.

Roslayn is a Communications Major at Central State and is a third year member of the Central State Championship Dance Troupe, “The Black Diamonds” in addition to being a member of the Marketing Club, the Daughters of Nia Anaya and Visions of Style.

The National American Miss Pageants are dedicated to celebrating America’s greatness and encouraging future leaders. Each year, the pageant awards thousands in scholarships and prizes to recognize and assist the development of young women nationwide. All activities are age-appropriate and family-orientated. Pageants are held in each state for girls ages four to eighteen in five different age divisions.

While she was in California for the National Pageant, Roslayn spent a day at Disneyland and toured Hollywood. At the Ohio pageant Ms. Cooper was the winner of the Spokes model competition, 1st runner-up in sportswear, 1st runner-up Photogenic. She also won the Ambassador Award, the Sprit Award and the Portfolio Award. She is the daughter of Clarence and Annie Cooper.