

Partnership Agreement Between
THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO COLLEGE OF LAW
AND
CENTRAL STATE UNIVERSITY

The University of Toledo College of Law ("Toledo Law") enters into this Partnership Agreement (this "Agreement") with Central State University ("CSU") in an effort to facilitate admission of qualified CSU students to law school in general and to the University of Toledo College of Law in particular. The goals of this agreement include: (1) to educate CSU students who show an interest in legal study about law school and the law school application process; and (2) to encourage CSU students to consider attending Toledo Law.

Toledo Law Activities

Toledo Law agrees to make the following activities available to CSU students:

- During the fall semester, representatives from Toledo Law shall visit the CSU campus at least once to engage in activities designed to inform and educate interested students about law school in general and about Toledo Law specifically.
- During the spring semester, Toledo Law shall host CSU students for at least one event, such as a preview day or an application preparation workshop, and shall pay for the transportation costs to such event. Transportation costs shall include the rental of two minivans and fuel, and shall not exceed three hundred dollars ($300.00). Toledo Law and CSU shall evaluate and agree upon the transportation costs each succeeding year of this Agreement.

Admission to Toledo Law

To qualify for presumptive admission to Toledo Law, CSU students must:

- Register with the Law School Admissions Council ("LSAC");
- Complete the online Toledo Law application at www.lsac.org;
- Enroll in the LSAC Credential Assembly Service ("CAS");
- Score a 154 or higher on the LSAT;
- Receive a cumulative undergraduate GPA of at least 3.30 from CSU by the end of the junior year (6th semester);
- Complete all requirements for an undergraduate degree from CSU prior to the start of law classes; and
- Receive approval from the Toledo Law Admissions Committee that the applicant has the requisite character and fitness to qualify for admission to a state bar.

Toledo Law Scholarships

Students considered for admission to Toledo Law will automatically be evaluated for scholarship awards ranging from $5,000 to full in-state tuition. These funds include the Law Education Opportunity Grant ("LEOG") for minority applicants, which is a three-year award renewable under certain conditions and covers anywhere from $10,000 to full tuition and fees, plus a book stipend.

This Agreement shall be subject to annual review by Toledo Law and CSU for changes, including amendments and cancellation.

The University of Toledo College of Law

Central State University

By: Jessica G. Mike

By: John W. Gauland

Date: 9-15-11

Date: 9/15/2011