

Partnership Agreement Between

CAPITAL UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL AND CENTRAL STATE UNIVERSITY

Capital University Law School enters into this agreement with Central State University to reduce potential barriers for students to earn admission to Capital University Law School.

Therefore, Capital University Law School and Central State University agree to the following:

1. Any student from Central State University (a) earning a bachelor's degree and participating in the Pre-Law Program at Central State University within two years of matriculating at Capital University Law School; (b) receiving a recommendation from the Director of the Pre-Law Program at Central State University; (c) anticipating graduating with Honors (3.2 or above); (d) earning at least 75% of his or her undergraduate credits at Central State University; (e) achieving an average LSAT of 148 or greater; (f) meeting Capital University Law School's good standing character requirements; and (f) fully completing a Capital University Law School application in a timely fashion will have satisfied the requirements for admission to Capital University law School.
2. Capital University Law School will provide Central State University with a supply of view books and other information about the law school. Central State University will take reasonable steps to notify pre-law and other interested students of this opportunity.
3. Selected members of the Capital University Law School faculty and Central State University faculty will collaborate in pre-law counseling of students and will encourage said students to undertake further activities that will promote academic success at Capital University Law School.
4. All Central State University students matriculating at Capital University Law School pursuant to this agreement will be governed by the regulations in effect when they matriculate at Capital University Law School and duly authorized changes in policy thereafter.

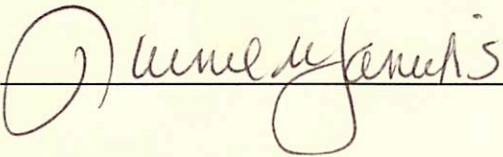

This agreement will remain in effect until modification or termination is sought by Central State University or Capital University Law School. In order to assure students at Central State University that this agreement will not be revoked after their admission to Central

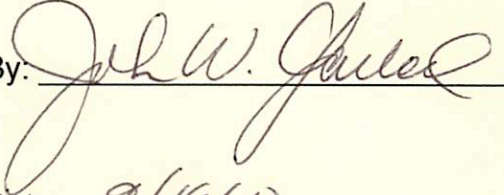

State University, Capital University law School will not revoke or materially amend this agreement without adequate written notice.

This agreement will become effective upon signing as authorized by:

Capital University Law School

Central State University

By:

By:

Date: 9/16/10

Date: 9/16/10