

Summer School Visiting Students

Transient

Students in good standing at an accredited college or university who wish to enroll in courses at Central State University for Summer School and expect to return to the original institution at the end of the semester may be admitted as transient students. Transient students are not eligible for Central State University financial aid funds. They are responsible covering the cost of their attendance.

In order to enroll as a transient student, you must complete and submit an undergraduate admissions application and a letter of good standing from the Registrar of your home institution to the Office of Admissions.

Consortium

Students who choose to cross-register via the Southwestern Ohio Council for Higher Education (SOCHE) Cross-Registration program, which allows students who are degree-seeking and/or participating in certification programs access to academic opportunities not available at their own institutions. Students attending colleges and universities within SOCHE may register for courses that are applicable to their degree program offered by other SOCHE institutions.

In order to cross-register for a course at another SOCHE institution, the desired course(s) must not be offered at the student's home institution during the term in which the student desires to enroll. Students must adhere to the cross-registration guidelines established at each SOCHE-member institution.

In order to enroll as a consortium student, you must complete and submit an undergraduate admissions application and the SOCHE cross-registration form from the Registrar of your home institution to the Office of Admissions.

Phone: 937-376-6348
