CRITERIA AND GUIDELINES FOR REQUESTING
INDIVIDUAL FACULTY PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AWARDS
Updated July 7, 2023

Central State University recognizes that attendance at and participation in professional conferences, meetings, and workshops is integral to the ability of faculty to maintain the highest quality of instruction and mentoring for their students. Travel to conferences, meetings, and workshops enables faculty to develop their teaching skills and enhance their abilities to serve and retain their students. In order to facilitate the faculty's ability to attend conferences, meetings, and workshops, the Center for Teaching and Learning (CTL) maintains a fund to support faculty professional development.

Overview of Guidelines for Professional Development Awards

1. Professional development awards are available to all full-time teaching faculty and department chairs to attend conferences, workshops, and seminars. When evaluating requests, the primary considerations are alignment of the request with the specific travel criteria appended to this packet and its potential benefit to the University. In order to promote a balanced and fair distribution of travel funds, the criteria include consideration of additional factors such as prior professional development funding provided to the faculty member, distribution of funding across departments and colleges, and participation by the faculty member in on-campus professional development opportunities.
2. Making a request for funds is a two-step process. The first step is completing and submitting the "CTL Funding Request" form found in this packet to Dr. Margery Coulson-Clark, the Associate Provost office Via Ms. Erika Sams at, at esams@centralstate.edu at least thirty (30) days prior to travel. Simultaneously, the traveler is to complete and submit a University Request for Travel (RFT) form signed by both the Department Chair and College Dean. Note: Request for Travel Packets received under 30 days prior to travel will not be processed. Travel is not fully approved until the "CTL Funding Request" form and the RFT has received all required signatures from Academic Planning & Assessment, Title III Office, Office of Sponsored Programs, and Provost Office. Travelers should not make non-refundable purchases prior to receiving all approvals and shall assume financial risks for costs pre-paid by the traveler prior to all approvals being obtained.
3. Title III funds cannot be used for international travel.
4. CTL does not fund travel for administrators above the level of department chair.
5. All funded travel must directly support the goals stated in the appended travel criteria, titled "Criteria and Guidelines for Requesting Individual Faculty Professional Development Awards" on page 10. Faculty traveling to conferences may present papers, articles, or findings but the presentations cannot be the primary or sole purpose of the travel. If conferences presentation is the main purpose for the request, faculty are directed to complete the "Faculty Presentation Funds" application.
6. Awards will be a maximum of \$2,000.00 during the 2023-2024 academic year. Actual awards are based on need and availability of funds. The following additional guidelines shall apply:
 - Travelers are expected to take advantage of meals included within conference registration fees and to use lower cost services whenever feasible, such as long-term airport parking as opposed to short term, etc.
 - Travelers shall follow the University's travel guidelines and policies as adopted by the Board of Trustees.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR REQUESTING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FUNDING THROUGH THE CTL

1. Obtain a Professional Development Travel Packet. Travel Packets are available online through Faculty Central on the university website. Faculty may also request a packet by sending an email to Ms. Sams in Dr. Margery Coulson- Clark's office at esams@centralstate.edu.
2. Complete and sign the "CTL Funding Request" form and submit it, along with required supporting documentation including the Request for Travel (RFT) form, and associated Department Chair and College Dean signatures to the Faculty Development Director. Retain the remainder of the packet to be submitted after completion of the professional development activity.

The CTL will evaluate the request, and, if recommended, direct the traveler to begin the requisition process with the Office of Academic Planning and Assessment. In some cases, the process assists the traveler with prepaying some expenses (i.e., registration costs, etc.).

3. After receiving the completed Travel Packet and RFT from the traveler, the Office of Academic Planning and Assessment will submit the documentation for the additional required approvals. The Office of Academic Planning and Assessment will contact the traveler via email confirming the requests have been fully approved and provide instructions for completing any remaining pre-travel requirements.

Note 1: Professional Development Travel Requests are not fully approved until all required approvals have been obtained on the CTL Funding Request and RFT (signatures from Academic Planning & Assessment, Title III Office, Office of Sponsored Programs, and Provost Office). Travelers should not make non-refundable purchases prior to receiving all approvals and shall assume financial risks for costs pre-paid by the traveler prior to all approvals being obtained.

Upon return from travel, a Post-Trip Report and Travel Expense Report (TER) will be completed and submitted by the traveler, along with original itemized receipts and other supporting documentation, to the Office of Academic Planning and Assessment within five (5) working days. The approved reports will be submitted via Banner to the Title III office, Office of Academic Planning and Assessment and Sponsored Programs and Research, as well as Accounting, as appropriate, in order that relevant purchase orders may be requisitioned for travel expenses, including reimbursable expenses.

Note 2: All traveler receipts must be provided to the Office of Academic Planning and Assessment. Once receipts are received, the TER will be finalized, and the faculty member can be reimbursed.

Questions may be directed to Dr. Margery Coulson-Clark, Associate Provost, (937) 376-6495 or Erika Sams, Program Coordinator (937) 376-669.

Documentation to Accompany Post-Trip Report

1. Reporting Expenses

Each Traveler is responsible for proper expense reporting as required by University Policy 410.1. All required documentation must be submitted to the Office of Academic Planning and Assessment within five (5) working days of the conclusion of the travel.

Procedures:

1. Scan all itemized receipt and submit to the Coordinator in the Office of Academic Planning and Assessment within five (5) working days after return.
 - Receipts: Receipts must be original, itemized and include the vendor's name and date. Mount receipts on 8 ½ sheet of paper in date order -or- scan receipts in date order to Office of Academic Planning and Assessment Coordinator.
2. The coordinator in the Office of Academic Planning and Assessment will email your Travel Expense Report (TER) to you via email for your signatures. Be sure to check with the accounting office or OAP&A to ensure the most up to date TER is used (i.e., mileage rates change annually).
3. Complete the Post-Trip Report and return it to the Faculty Development Director to be maintained with the Faculty Development Funding Records. A copy will be forwarded to the Office of Academic Planning and Assessment, as necessary, to finalize the process.

Travelers are advised to retain a copy of all paperwork.

The Office of Academic Planning and Assessment will submit the completed Travel Expense Report along with the documents supporting the expenditures within 5 working days after receipt of the materials. The Title III Office, the Office of Sponsored Programs and Research, and the Controller Office audit the Travel Expense Report for mathematical accuracy, proper approvals, and adherence to spending policies and limits (meal rates, hotels, rental cars, etc.). The travel expense report will be processed for payment within and up to 2 weeks after receipt by the Controller's Office.

TITLE III CRITERIA FOR FINANCIAL SUPPORT OF INDIVIDUAL FACULTY PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT TRAVEL

Historically, the Center for Teaching and Learning (formerly the Office of Faculty Development) provided funding to support faculty travel for a variety of professional development purposes. As is the case with many dimensions of professional and public service, the amount of funding available for travel is extremely limited and must be used exclusively to achieve the requirements set forth in the grant. Consequently, the funds that are available for professional development, including travel, can be used only to support the goals and specific objectives described below.

Goals

The Center for Teaching and Learning is committed to addressing institutional concerns through building the capacity of the faculty to contribute to increasing enrollment and enhancing the University's academic programs. This will be accomplished through assessment of student learning, program review, and accreditation, which will improve institutional effectiveness.

Specific Objectives:

1. Design and use of resource materials to support assessment of student learning.
2. Design and use of resources materials to support program review and the enhancement of academic programs.
3. Provide support for faculty for whom English is not their first language to reduce any language/cultural barriers that may inhibit student learning success.
4. Provide support for identification and use of the most effective instructional strategies and techniques in response to the learning needs of all students.

Criteria for Financial Support of Faculty Travel:

1. Financial support for faculty travel is available only to full-time faculty and department chairs to attend conferences, workshops, and seminars that address the specific objectives noted above.
2. The respective chairperson and dean must review the request to assure it supports the objectives stated above and provide a statement outlining their support for the request.
3. Funds cannot be used for international travel.
4. Funds cannot be provided for the purpose of presenting at a conference. However, a faculty member is not prohibited from making a presentation at a conference that he or she is attending for an approved purpose.
5. Any financial support for faculty travel is limited to a maximum of $2,000.00 during the 2023-2024 academic year. Faculty are expected to seek financial support from the respective departments/colleges as well as other means to offset costs.
6. To promote the wide development of knowledge and skills, decisions to approve funds will consider the faculty member's prior use of Title III funds. Priority will be given to faculty who did not receive funding in the past academic year or within the current academic year.

7. To encourage faculty's overall professional development, consideration will also be given to the faculty member's participation in on-campus and regional professional development activities.

8. The following expectations shall apply to all funded travel:

- Travelers will take advantage of meals included within the conference registration fees.
- Travelers will use lower cost services whenever feasible—long term airport parking as opposed to short term, etc.
- Travelers shall follow the University's travel guidelines and policies as adopted by the Board of Trustees.
- Documentation of travel expenses must be completed within five (5) working days. Travelers are expected to sign the Travel Expense Report provided to the Center for Teaching and Learning/Office of Academic Planning and Assessment promptly. Failure to complete the required documentation in a timely fashion will negatively affect the disposition of future funding requests.

9. All travelers must submit a letter of intent to travel requesting financial support to the Associate Provost's Office at least 30 days prior to the travel dates requested. The requestor must clearly articulate:

- The purpose and destination of travel.
- Appropriate documentation of proposed activities, i.e., conference agenda, completed registration forms.
- A personalized explanation of how the travel will contribute to the "Specific Objectives" outlined above to enhance teaching/learning.
- A stated commitment to formally share knowledge gained with the larger university community in a manner and time to be agreed upon by the applicant and the office of the Provost/Director of Faculty Development.
- Evidence that the travel is supported and approved by the applicant's Chair and Dean.
- All decisions with respect to financial support for faculty travel will be communicated in writing to the applicant, the applicant's Department Chair, and the Dean by the Director of Faculty Development.
- Completed travel requisitions must be provided at the time of application.
