

MARAUDER LAND MEDIA GROUP CODE OF CONDUCT CONTRACT

Marauder Land Media Group thrives every day to tell the news with fairness, accuracy, professionalism and honesty to Central State University and our community. We also believe in covering events, attending weekly meetings, and working within the newscast in a professional and drug free manner. As a part of this group and by signing this contract, I, _____ will adhere to the following:

- Show up to meetings, newscasts and other M.M.G. functions in a timely manner and will contact the TV Production Studio Manager, Stanley Jefferson, if I am not going to be able to make it to the meeting or if I am going to be late.
- Show to meetings, newscasts and other M.M.G. functions drug and alcohol free and not smelling marijuana or any other drug substance.
- Report the news with fairness, accuracy, honesty, and professionalism.
- Do not report stories that will negatively affect the reputation of Central State University.
- Dress professionally during the newscast when anchoring the newscast, reporting (or any other on-air position), when we are at a group event, have a special guest coming to visit us or if asked to do so at any time by the TV Production Studio Manager.
- Always fill out the Marauder Land Productions Videography Services Video, Music and Photo and Student/Minor Release forms if you are planning to do a story and use someone else's work (music, pictures, audio recording, artwork, etc.) and/or involving those in your stories that are under the age of 18.
- Show respect towards everyone in the Marauder Land Media Group and remain professional towards others while covering a story.

SIGN _____

DATE: _____